

Changing the Game

A professional development workshop for

K-12 Phys Ed teachers, Coaches, Athletic directors, Administrators and all who care about a safe climate for everyone in physical education classes and athletics.

regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity/expression

Featuring - Pat Griffin: Professor Emeritus in Social Justice Education, University of Massachusetts, Amherst and
Project Director for The GLSEN Sports Project: Changing the Game

Location – Princeton University, Frist Campus Center

Date and Time – Friday, February 3, 2012, 9:00 am – 1:00 pm
Continental breakfast is included.

Registration fee -- $45.00 payable by check to GLSEN Central NJ and mailed with registration form to GLSEN CNJ, P.O. Box 261, Hightstown, NJ 08520

Sponsored by

- The Gay, Lesbian and Straight Education Network: Central NJ Chapter
 - The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Center of Princeton University
 - HiTOPS: An organization that promotes adolescent health and well-being
 - The Princeton University Program in Teacher Preparation.
-

Resources – Participants will receive a copy of the Changing the Game Playbook including strategies for implementing an atmosphere of respect in physical education and athletic programs. Certificates for four hours of professional development provided upon completion of the workshop. Registration open to the first 50 participants.

Name _____

School or district _____

Address _____

Phone _____ E-mail _____

Please check all that apply

Physical education teacher Coach Athletic director

Administrator Other role _____

Elementary Middle school High school Other _____

A check in the amount of _____ for _____ persons is made payable to GLSEN Central NJ. Mail to GLSEN Central NJ, P.O. Box 261, Hightstown, NJ 08520, cni@niglsen.org